

FRIDAY — ACTIVITY

Fill in the missing words from the following Scripture verses.

My God, my God, why have you _____ me? Why are you so far from _____ me, from the words of my groaning? In you our fathers trusted; they trusted, and you _____ them. To you they cried and were rescued; in you they trusted and were not put to shame. — Psalm 22:1, 4–5

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of _____! Shout aloud, O daughter of _____! Behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having _____ is he, humble and mounted on a _____, on a _____, the foal of a donkey. — Zechariah 9:9

Therefore God has highly _____ him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of _____ every knee should bow, in _____ and on _____ and under the earth, and every tongue _____ that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the _____ of God the _____. — Philippians 2:9–11

Most of the crowd spread their _____ on the road, and others cut _____ from the trees and spread them on the road. And the crowds that went before him and that followed him were _____, “_____ to the Son of David! _____ is he who comes in the name of the _____! Hosanna in the _____!” — Matthew 21:8–9

Lambs at Pasture™

Palmarum — Palm Sunday

INTROIT

Psalm 22:1, 7–8, 11; antiphon: Psalm 22:19–21

But you, O LORD, do not be far off!

O you my help, come quickly to my aid!

Save me from the mouth of the lion!

You have rescued me from the horns of the wild oxen!

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?

All who see me mock me;

they make mouths at me; they wag their heads;

“He trusts in the LORD; let him deliver him;

let him rescue him, for he delights in him!”

Be not far from me, for trouble is near,

and there is none to help.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

But you, O LORD, do not be far off!

O you my help, come quickly to my aid!

Save me from the mouth of the lion!

You have rescued me from the horns of the wild oxen!

MEMORY VERSE

Psalm 73:23b–24, 1

You hold my right hand. You guide me with your counsel, and afterward you will receive me to glory. Truly God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.

HYMN OF THE WEEK: LSB #441 — Ride On, Ride On in Majesty

CATECHISM CONNECTION: The First Article of the Creed with Explanation

COLLECT OF THE WEEK

Most merciful God, as the people of Jerusalem, with palms in their hands, gathered to greet Your dearly beloved Son when He came into His Holy City, grant that we may ever hail Him as our King and, when He comes again, may go forth to meet Him with trusting and steadfast hearts and follow Him in the way that leads to eternal life; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

DID YOU KNOW?

Our liturgical preparation for Easter takes place through three distinct periods or steps, with its culmination being Holy Week. Holy Week begins on Palmarum (Palm Sunday) and extends through the Triduum (“three holy days” — that is: Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday).

Upon the conclusion of the Maundy Thursday Service, the Altar will be stripped, the Sanctuary decorations will be removed, and the Processional cross will be carried out.

From last Sunday (Judica) through Holy Week, all the crosses in the sanctuary are veiled. This is done because we do not deserve to look upon the cross. We are not worthy of the Sacrifice. The cross is our greatest and most cherished symbol. So it is partially taken away from us for a short time, that we might better appreciate it when it returns. But the cross is not taken away completely; it is not removed. It is only covered. We can see outlines of the cross, but its beauty and details are fuzzy. This represents the reality that our grief prevents us from seeing clearly until Easter. For faith always views the cross in the light of the empty tomb.
